JOJO MOYES

THE GIVER OF STARS

Inspired by a remarkable true story, the unforgettable journey of five extraordinary women living in extraordinary and perilous times. Alice Wright has travelled halfway across the world to escape her stifling life in England. Handsome American businessman Bennett Van Cleve represents a fresh start.

But she soon realises that swapping the twitching curtains of suburbia for newlywed life in the wild mountains of Kentucky isn't the answer to her prayers. But maybe meeting Margery O'Hara is. The heart and backbone of the small community of Salt Lick, a woman who isn't afraid of anything or anyone, Margery is on a mission. Enlisting Alice, along with three other women, all from very different backgrounds, to join her, the band of unlikely sisters battle the elements and unforgiving terrain - as well as brave all manner of dangers and social disapproval - to ride hundreds of miles a week to deliver books to isolated families. Transforming the lives of so many is all the impetus they need to take such risks.

INTERESTING TRIVIA...

THE 100 FOLDS IN A CHEF'S HAT REPRESENT 100 WAYS TO COOK AN EGG.

Yes, that tall, pleated white hat that chefs wear - technically called a toque - has 100 folds for a reason! The pleats used to signify a chef's level of experience, like the number of ways he or she knew how to prepare eggs.

What's in a name?

Think John is a common name? Well...out of the current 18 AFL squads, each averaging over 43 players (787 blokes in total)... how many John's can you name?

There are loads of Jakes, Jacks, Josh's, Jarrod's, Jacksons, Jeremy's, Jacobs, James', and Jordan's. In fact there are 38 listed Jack/Jacksons (7 Jacks just in St Kilda) and yet there are only 4 John/Jonathon's across all the squads!

A BIT OF FOOTY TRIVIA FOR THE 2020 FOOTY SEASON
