NEW BOOKS

21ST BIRTHDAY

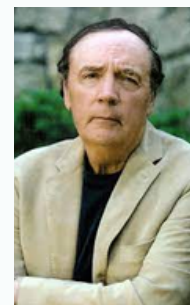

(Women's Murder Club #21)

by James Patterson and Maxine Paetro

Detective Lindsay Boxer vows to protect a young woman from a serial killer long enough to see her twenty-first birthday.

When young wife and mother Tara Burke goes missing with her baby girl, all eyes are on her husband, Lucas. He paints her not as a missing person but a wayward wife—until a gruesome piece of evidence turns the investigation criminal.

JAMES PATTERSON is one of the best-known and biggest-selling writers of all time. His books have sold in excess of 385 million copies worldwide. We now have not 1 but 2 new books by James Patterson and co-authors in Exmouth Library.

THE RED BOOK

(Black Book #2)

by James Patterson and David Ellis

To Detective Billy Harney, the newest member of Chicago PD's elite strike force (Special Operations Section-SOS) getting shot in the head, stalked by a state's attorney, and accused of murder by his fellow cops is all part of breaking a case.

When a drive-by shooting on Chicago's west side turns political, he leads the way to a quick solve. But Harney's instincts run deep. As a population hungry for justice threatens to riot, he realizes that the three known victims are not the only ones.

Harney's investigations show that the easy answers are not always the right ones. Harney's quest to expose the evil that's rotting the city from the inside out takes him to the one place he vowed never to return: his own troubled past.

What's in a name?

Many of us frequent the recreation spaces in town, but do you know what the names of the local ovals mean?

Kooboroo Oval, located north of the recreation centre is named after Kuburoo Well, a native well in the area. The spelling was changed to match the aboriginal pronunciation.

Talanjee Oval, the cricket/footy oval is named after one of the aboriginal groups who traditionally occupied this area (more commonly spelt as Thalanyji).

If you are interested in learning more about local aboriginal dialect, the library has a set of six dictionaries which document the languages traditionally spoken in the region between the Gascoyne and Ashburton Rivers in the north-west of WA, including the Thalanyji-English dictionary.

A Happy Place

Exmouth Library had a record breaking 395 people through our doors in one day during the recent rains. The library was a hive of activity with people playing games, using devices as well as private study/reading.

We are so proud of the services we provide and that so many people are choosing to use our wonderful library.

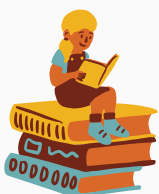

Thank you!

KIDS CORNER

Storytime sessions are taking a break over the school holidays and will be back with more rhymes, craft and stories commencing from: 9:30am, Tuesday 20th July 2021.

During the holidays we will have our Duplo blocks and board games that can be played in the library. Or maybe you might like to share a jigsaw puzzle?

We look forward to seeing families enjoying the library space together over the holidays.

Joke for Kids

Q: How do you talk to a giant?

A: Use big words!
