JANUARY
2022
ISSUE 21

Happy New Year!

The library is back open with regular hours:

Monday to Thursday: 9am - 4pm

Friday: closed

Saturday: 9am - 1pm

NB: We will be closed Australia Day - Wednesday 26th January 2022

Not just books!

Did you know that we have puzzles, board games and Duplo that can be played in our fully airconditioned Library?

We also have magazines, DVD's and audio books that can be loaned.

The summer holidays are a great time to come in and see everything we have on offer.

Fancy a job in the Library?

We will shortly be advertising for a part-time library assistant to join our wonderful team.

Look out for details on the Shire of Exmouth's website under 'Employment'

Sadly even the Exmouth librarians have been guilty of this in the past - Bryce Courtney books were very handy before our computer monitor stands were height adjustable!

JANUARY MOVIES

13th January: Unfinished Sky (M, 2007)

A widowed farmer is living a self-imposed reclusive lifestyle until a traumatised Afghan refugee, held captive in a nearby hotel, collapses near his sheep station. He reluctantly helps her and despite cultural and language barriers, the two reconcile their similarly damaging past eventually forming a somewhat hesitant romantic relationship whilst trying to evade her abductors and the law enforcement.

27th January: Her Majesty (PG, 2001)

As a small New Zealand town prepares for a once-in-a-lifetime royal visit, a popular thirteen-year old girl, Elizabeth, who dreams of meeting the Queen and may just get her chance, finds her fervent hopes put in jeopardy when she develops an unlikely, life-changing friendship with Hira, an elderly Maori woman outcast from society, who is in need of help just as the queen arrives.
